3. Attach a voided cheque or bank verification letter for each account listed. Deposit slips are not accepted.
4. Sign and date Section F. An unsigned form is not a valid authorisation.
5. Submit through an approved channel only (see the box below). Allow [7] working days before the intended pay date.
6. Keep a copy for your own records, then securely destroy any drafts containing your account number.

What happens next

- Verification: Payroll checks the form against your employee record and the attached bank documentation.
- Interim payment: Up to the first two pay cycles may be paid by cheque while verification completes.
- Pre-note: A zero-value test transaction may be sent to your bank to confirm the account is valid.
- Confirmation: Payroll confirms in writing once direct deposit is active. Your payslip will then show the deposit account.
